

Nablus Municipality

International Relations Department
Newsletter # 1
Covering period June-July 2017

Issue no. 1, Aug. 2017

Nablus Municipality met representatives of MEDINA Foundation from Province of Tuscany in Italy 31-5-2017

Mayor Adly Yaish, met with MEDINA representative from the Province of Tuscany in Italy which has a twinning relation with Nablus Municipality since 1998. The meeting aims at revitalizing the relations with the Municipality through launching new horizons of cooperation and joint projects in different areas of interest to both sides, including women, youth and urban development.

Wastewater Management Nablus East Project

In the farm work of Wastewater Management Nablus East Project, Nablus Municipality has awarded so far two contracts. The budget allocation of this project was financed from the German Government through KfW-BMZ with total amount of Euro 17,142,857.14.

The Project concerns the improvement of the wastewater management in Nablus East and surrounding six villages as well as a pilot project in the region of Nablus for the reuse of treated wastewater. The purpose of the Project is to improve the wastewater management in the project region. This is to contribute to the achievement of national sector objectives for the development of an adequate and sustainable wastewater infrastructure as well as the improvement of the protection of the environment and natural resources.

Nablus and Lille completed the final touches for urban planning and cultural heritage project 9/07/2017

The two municipalities of Nablus and Lille (France) have completed the final two days intensive workshops between the urban planning & cultural heritage technical teams of the said project, of which commenced implementation since two years. The closing ceremony was attended by mayor Adly Yaish, his deputy Eng. Mohammed Al-Shunnar and a number of council members with the presence of the two working groups from the two cities. The proposed projects presented by both team were thoroughly reviewed from different perspectives.

Nablus Municipality received experts in the field of solar energy from the city of Nurnberg/ Germany 08/07/2017

In continuous effort to complete the solar energy project, being implemented at the Western wastewater treatment plant, with the support of the German municipality of Nurnberg, Mayor Adly Yaish received a delegation from the said German city, represented by the international relations officer and experts in the field of solar energy. A workshop was held with the participation of a number of technicians and specialists from Palestinian municipalities and consulting companies working in this area.

With the participation of German experts, Nablus Municipality & GIZ held a two days workshop on Solar Energy 10/7/2017

Mayor Adly Yaish opened the workshop by welcoming the participants, expressed his gratitude for the tremendous efforts of German government to improve the water and waste water sector in Nablus. The workshop was held in cooperation GIZ and extended for two consecutive days, led by German experts and technicians from the city of Nurnberg, with the participation of representatives from a number Palestinian municipalities, in addition to a group of companies specializing in the generation of electric power.

Cooperation agreement with the German Global engagement community. 27-5-2017

Mayor Yaish and Mr. Rami Masri a representative of Nuremberg Municipality, signed a new cooperative agreement entails implementing a pilot project for generating power by solar energy panels in the West Treatment Plant, funded by the German government through Nuremberg municipality in Germany.

The project is being implemented at the Waste Water Treatment Plant—Nablus West, with a total fund allocation of 250,000 Euros. The project is currently being implemented under the follow up and supervision of German technical experts who arrived to Nablus for this purpose.

Nablus Municipality Met with EU & UNDP Representatives 20-7-2017

Eng. Adly Yaish received the EU Representative for Tourism Development Project Dr. Marin Mizindari and Eng Motaz Dawabshe UNDP Representative. The meeting focused on "Khan Al Wakala" project, which is a model for public-private partnership. Mr. Yaish expressed his thanks and appreciation to all those who contributed in the restoration of this important archeological site, which became functioning as a touristic and cultural site to all visitors.

Nablus Municipality discussed cooperation with KFW

Director 20-7-2017

Mr. Adly Yaish met the Director of the German Development Bank Mr. Jonas Blum, and the Director of International Cooperation & Development of the German Representation, in addition to a representative of the German consulting company for water and sanitation projects. The meeting focused on several projects funded by the German government.

Nablus Municipality honored a delegation Ms. Souzan Fatayer, Mr. Raffaele Porta, Dr. Carlo Foza , from the city of Naples which is twinned with Nablus in recognition to there continuous support.

16-7-2017

Thank you

Prepared by: Noor Hanbali
International Relations Officer.
Supervised by: Raja Taher
Director of Public and International Relations Dep.